

KEEPING HOPE ALIVE

Three Women of the Kalahari

DUSTLANDS

Join Iziko Museums of South Africa for the screening of

DUSTLANDS and Keeping Hope Alive

A film showcase following the journeys of characters in the Kalahari at different times of our world.

Dustlands exposes the devastating impact of Covid-19 on the lives and livelihoods of the Khomani San - as seen through the eyes of San traditional leader Petrus Vaalboo.

Keeping Hope Alive follows the lives of three women - connected through their tenacity, optimism and courage, despite circumstances, sharing stories of their present and vision for the future.

Date: Saturday, 1 July 2023

Venue: T H Barry Lecture Hall, Iziko South African Museum, 25 Queen Victoria Road, Cape Town.

Time: 10:00 - 12:00

Book online via WebTickets: <https://bit.ly/DUSTLANDSandKeepingHopeAlive>

Enquiries contact: Annelize Kotze via email akotze@iziko.org.za

www.iziko.org.za

